

In the Voice of our Ancestors

First Person Historical Narrative Retreat/Workshop with Ilene Evans

April 28 – May 1, 2016

Timberline in Canaan Valley, Davis, WV

Limited places – Book EARLY!!!!!!

An intensive Workshop / Retreat for storytellers, actors, performers, scholars, teachers, librarians, museum interpreters and Chautauquans hosted in the mountains of West Virginia, the home of Black History Month. You will be working with Ilene Evans and other participants sharing, coaching, collaborating and researching while crafting your character and honing your voice.

The Program for includes:

- Creative warm-up exercises - body, mind and voice
- Journaling - private time and reflection
- Research techniques: process and options
- Monologue Structure and Scripting
- Physical Characterization
- Natural Rhythms – song, sound and music
- Finding the Drama in your Story
- Individual Coaching Sessions and Group Work

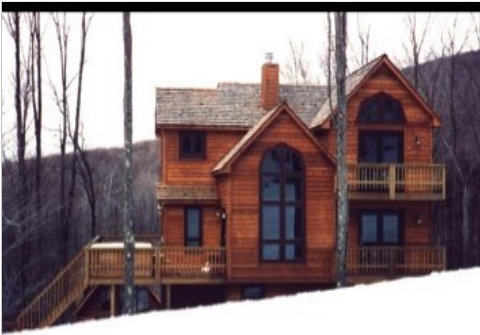

Voices From the Earth

304-288-6255

www.vfte.org

info@vfte.org

The mission of VFTE is to bring to life African American tales of courage, freedom, and valor through storytelling, theater, and historical portrayal to promote listening, learning, respect, and thoughtfulness.

Voices From the Earth

304-288-6255

www.vfte.org

info@vfte.org

Ilene Evans is the Artistic Director and Founder of Voices From The Earth Inc. Ilene has a Masters in Storytelling and extensive experience training her peers, sharing her craft and performing in the US and Internationally. Ilene's repertoire of first person portrayals include Harriet Tubman, Memphis Tennessee Garrison, Ethel Waters, Bessie Coleman, Eslanda Robeson, & Coralie Franklin Cook.

www.ilene-evans.com

Limited places – Book EARLY!!!!!!

The $750 cost includes:

- Airport transfers from Washington DC
- Private room or shared accommodation – resort standard
- All meals
- Tuition fees
- Workshop materials
- Two pre-retreat personal consultations with Ilene (phone or Skype) to ensure you are fully briefed and prepared to maximise your investment and this outstanding opportunity.

Register now and reserve your place!

Please contact: Ilene@vfte.org